

Rosebank College invites you to an Ethical Explorations Day
Friday 27 May 2022

Program

- 8:45 - Registration
- 9:00 - Welcome
- 9:15 - Opening Speaker:
Greg Henshaw:- The Rise of the Machines
- 10:30 - Group organisation
- 10:45 - Morning tea break
- 11:05 - CoI stimulus and discussions
- 12:15 - Presentation of discussion findings
- 12:45 - Lunch break
- 1:25 - Group debate exploring an ethical dilemma
- 2:45 - Farewells

Details

Where: Benedict Auditorium, Rosebank College
1A Harris Rd, Five Dock, NSW 2046

Who: 8-10 students from Year 9 to Year 11

Cost: $5 per student

RSVP: Ms Cheryl McArthur
cmcarthur@rosebank.nsw.edu.au
By Friday May 13

RSVP is essential for catering purposes, please provide dietary requirements for teachers you're your RSVP.

Catering provided for accompanying staff. Students to bring their own food and water bottles (water filling stations available at the College)

Parking: Parking on the grounds is unavailable but there are bus stops on Harris Road near the pedestrian entry to allow students to alight. Limited council parking is available at the Leisure Centre on Queens Road.

Public transport: Bus stops on Parramatta Rd and Harris Rd.